To Mr. Daniel L. Skaggs
1925 - 1980

Stopping By Woods On A Snowy Evening

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

-Robert Frost

Softball Swings A Successful Year

Again this year, the girls softball team had a very successful year. They had an exciting game against Coconino as well. All in all the girls had a lot of fun. Coach Corona and Foster both did splendid coaching jobs.

Despite a slow start, the varsity basketball team showed their exquisite talent with many excellent performances on the court. Besides defeating the no. 1 rated Winslow Bulldog basketball team, our varsity team gave tough games to all including our arch rival, Coconino.

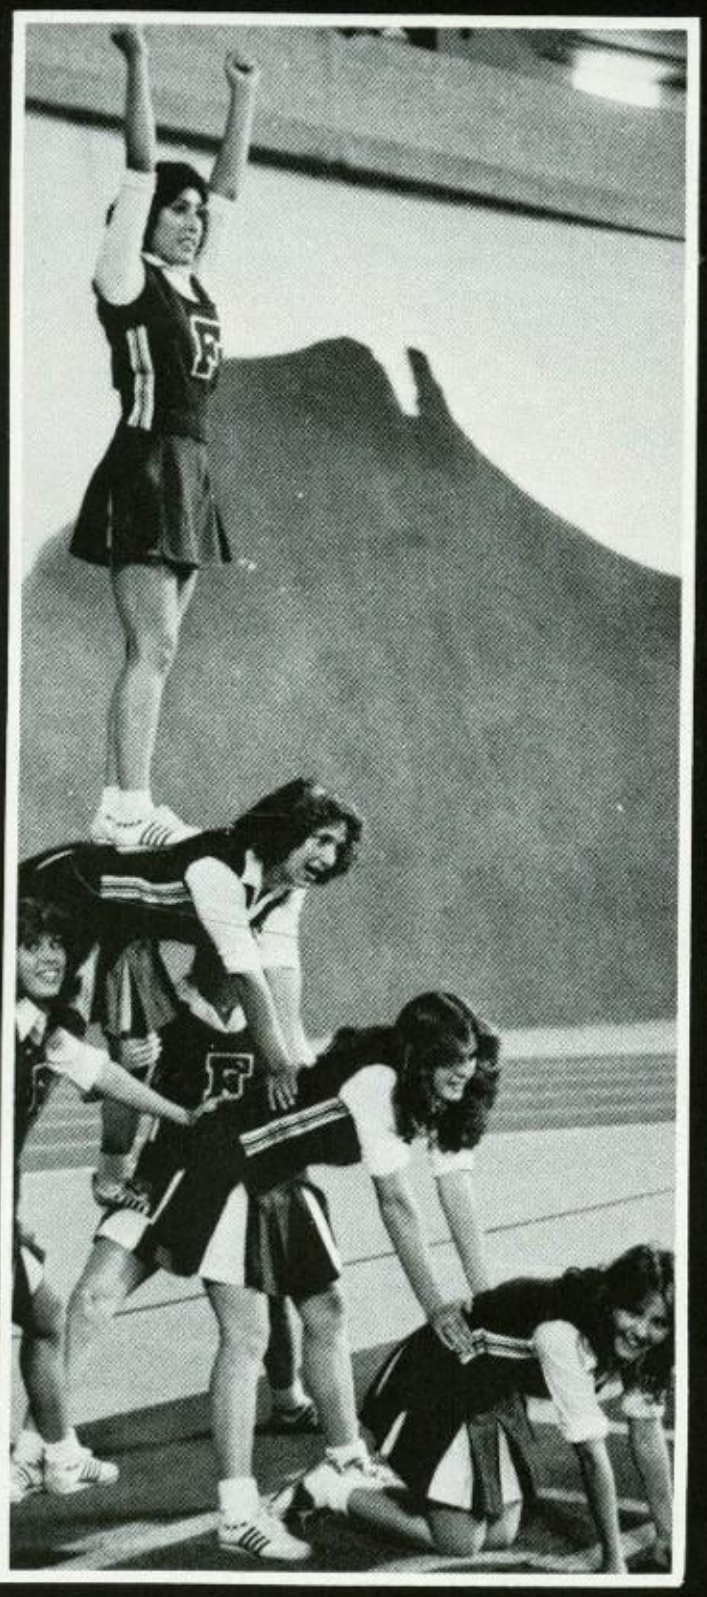
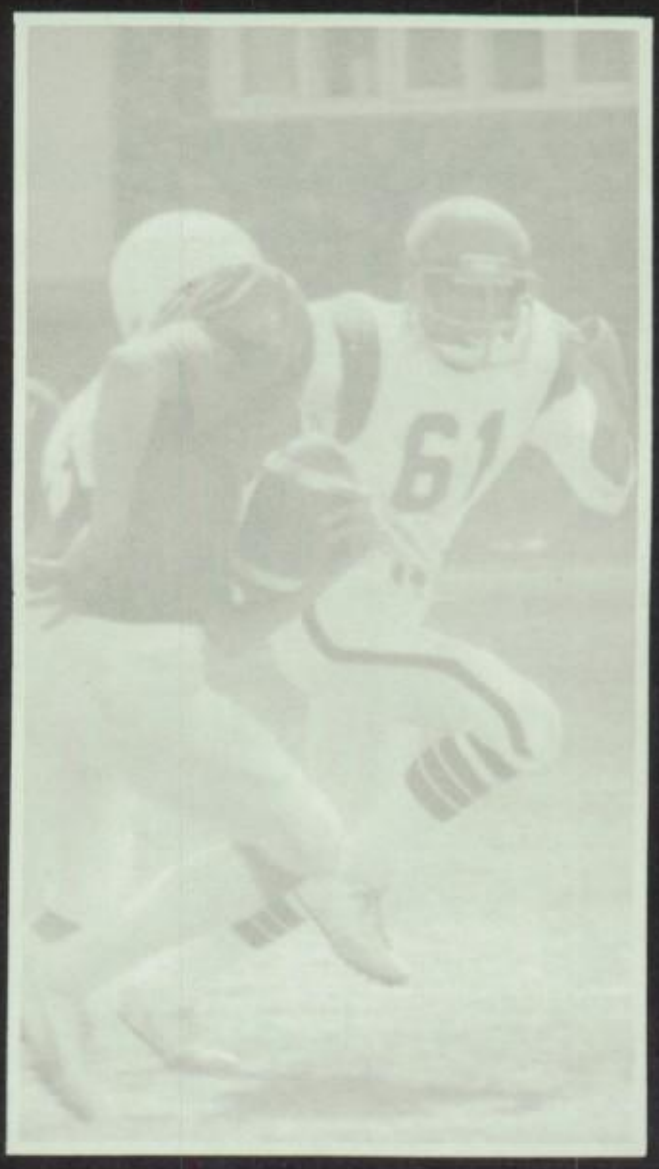
SPIRIT





Varsity Cheer

Being a Cheerleader is...

Falling from a mount,

Goofing up a chant or cheer and hoping that special someone isn't watching.

Racking your brains to think of a pep assembly the night before the assembly.

Attempting to get an unenthused crowd EXCITED!

Feeling as if no one appreciates all your efforts.

Having a slumber party the night before Homecoming, to finish all our SPIRIT plans.

Going to a volleyball game and cheering six against a whole school!!

Looking for our clackers and finding them in the hands of our wild and crazy fans.

Always pulling together through good times and bad.

Seeing the pride in the players eyes as they run through our SPIRIT lines.

Last but not least! ALWAYS having a GREAT time together cheering or not!

BEING A CHEERLEADER IS THE GREATEST THING IN THE WORLD!!!

Promoting spirit for our ''new'' school, and representing FHS well was the pom pon's main goal this year. Coming home from the Camp of Champs at NAU, the squad had numerous ribbons denoting excellent routines and great spirit. The line marched in NAU's Homecoming parade, and also in the state fair. All this helped in making a great year, along with help from captain Tina Gallegos, and co-captains Rhonda Harvey and Geri Shumate.

Halloween is here

by Patty Talahongva

Halloween will soon be here and so will all the things that come with this fun and scary holiday.

Halloween means "Hallowed" or "Holy Evening," because it takes place the day before "All Saints Day."

Superstition started the holiday. The Irish people contributed about the Jack-'o'-lantern. They said that this man named Jack died and could not go to heaven because of his sins, and he could not go to

In the 700's the Roman Catholic Church named November 1st All Saints Day. The pagen custom and the Christian feast day were combined to make the Halloween holiday.

Today Halloween is celebrated by trick-or-treating, parties, haunted houses, special movies and loads of other things.

Here in Flagstaff some things that will be going on include: October 30, KOAI-TV will be showing two Halloween specials, "Casper's Halloween" and "Witches Night Out." Other movie specials will be

Foreign Exchange

Once again Flagstaff High School hosted a whole envoy of foreign diplomats in the form of foreign exchange students. Each represented their countries, which include Colombia and Guatemala, proudly.

Expanding the knowledge of the foreign student, as well as the American student, in the way of customs, language and the such, is the main objective of the foreign exchange program. It has improved ties between the United States and foreign peoples immensely. Mrs. Judy Hunt heads the program at Flag High.

SO MUCH IN THE FUTURE
I AM SUPPOSED TO KNOW.
I REMEMBER WHEN I'D JUST BEGUN
I REMEMBER THE LAUGHTER AND FUN.
I REMEMBER THE SORROW AND PAIN
I REMEMBER SPORTS, SO MANY GAMES.
I REMEMBER STUDIES AND TESTS,
DO YOU REMEMBER ALL THE REST?
FRIENDS AND FOES,

IN THE FLASHBACKS
OF YEARS PAST,
I WANT TO THANK THOSE AT LAST.
THOSE WE OFTEN DID NOT LIKE,
THOSE WE DID THINGS TO IN SPITE.
THANK YOU TO MY TEACHERS:
WHO OFTEN LEAD THE WAY,
WHO PUSHED ME THROUGH A LOT OF DAYS?
WHO GAVE ME LOTS OF HOME WORK

WHO MADE ME SIT AT MY DESK?
WHO DISCIPLINED AND TOLD ME

OUR FRIENDSHIP'S
LIKE A LOVELY BRIDGE

Our friendship's like a lovely bridge ... between your heart and mine
A bridge we've built down through the years ... just to our own design
It's based on happy memories ...
of good times that we've known ...
The hopes and dreams we two have shared ... the thoughtfulness you've shown ...
It's stronger now than ever ...
For its grown with every smile ...
and every act of kindness ...
That makes life seem more worthwhile ...
And now I know that, If you're near ... Or if we're miles apart ...
Our friendship still unites us
with a bridge from heart to heart.

Lynne,

Times are tough, Algebra were tough, but you were tougher. I really wish you were taking it easier for me to bear. Trig next year with you. I'll work hard to cry with you. The only chance we have of getting a class together is if anybody else takes it. Continue excellence in Drama and it will be so I hope we get that same person and I know you'll get your talented person and I know you'll get your singing, I think for places. Do the same with your singing, I think for YCC as a of you as a very special way to keep in touch, okay? Have a great summer for. Please keep working for YCC as a and I'll do the same while you're a senior leader (thrills, huh?) next year as a youth leader (thrills, huh?) next year as a senior!

Love Ya,

SENIORITY STRIKES!

Dynne,
It seems really weird to sign your yearbook when I see you all the time, but you can look back on it many years from now and see what I wrote and remember. This year's been super short (thank goodness!) and yet so much has happened. You've changed from nothing to an actress, which no one expected, but it's always fun to do something that no one expects. You've also done much good things for Chorus, which is great. Me? I haven't done much worth remembering. Next year is another year, unfortunately, but we'll be seniors. Then we split and leave our friends and explore the world as adults and then..... Oh what am I doing planning years ahead! Let's just think about now! Thanks for all your encouragement in everything you've always helped me with. I know that many times I don't say I appreciate it, but I do! I'll still never forget that valentine flowers that you made my day!
I love you!
Janette

Lynne,

You are a nice girl. I think that you are a good actoress. I think you are a good person. Though I don't know you well I think you are a friend. You are not an enemy. I think you have more determination than me and I think you will live very well. You seem to have alot going for you. You should be happy.
